BEREA, Ky. –On Saturday, March 8, the Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea will offer visitors free guided tours through the center's gallery exhibit, "Repurposed and Recycled: Works by Kentucky Artisans," and the lobby exhibit, "Kentucky Bourbon: Distillation and Inspiration."

"Repurposed and Recycled," features works by over 35 artists and includes pieces made from a wide variety of recycled materials from antique lightening rods to scrap paint to dehydrated tree frogs.

The lobby exhibit covers the history of Kentucky bourbon and production of this unique drink with details showing the location of distilleries on the "Kentucky Bourbon Trail" and products made from recycled bourbon barrels.

These free, guided exhibit tours will be led by Kentucky Artisan Center staff, who will talk about the exhibit, the artists and individual works. Staff will answer questions about the techniques and various processes used in the objects featured. This tour will be given at 11 a.m. and again at 2 p.m.

In addition, on March 8, Mary Lykins, of Berea, will be demonstrating how she creates her unique fabric dolls from 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea is located at 200 Artisan Way, just off Interstate 75 at Berea, Exit 77. The center's exhibits, shopping and travel information areas are open daily from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. with the cafe open from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Admission is free.

The center currently features works by more than 700 artisans from more than 100 counties across the Commonwealth. For more information about the center's events call 859-985-5448, visit us on Facebook at www.facebook.com/kentucky.artisan.center, or go to the center's website at www.kentuckyartisancenter.ky.gov.
